Our Run Running Problem

To Mayor of Cities:

Go to Jacksonville, Florida—this is written in that city—call on Mayor Alsop, and learn about Jacksonville's municipally owned electric light and power plant.

There is no cheap water power in Jacksonville—oil is used, at a cost equivalent to $6.50 a ton for coal. But the people of Jacksonville buy their current at a price lower, than anywhere in the United States, except perhaps, Seattle. So says John H. Perry, whose newspaper, the Jacksonville Journal, prints this column.

Selling at a low cost, the people of Jacksonville make a profit of three-quarters of a million on their plant. They are building an addition to the plant costing eleven hundred thousand dollars, and their taxes are low.

Henry Ford, who will shock the nerves of big financiers as quickly as he would chop off the head of a leech, has recently startled gentlemen that manufacture fertilizers here.

The Ford agent at Jacksonville got word that so many carloads of sulphate of ammonia in bags ready for distribution to farmers would presently arrive and they must sell it.

Shipments came and have continued. Jacksonville understands that Ford's ammonia sulphate is a by-product of his coke plants. What interests the farmers is the fact that Ford sells his fertilizer, of the highest grade, $19 a ton below the market price.

Apparently Ford is trying his hand at cheap fertilizer without waiting for Muscle Shoals.

"Not too much, not too little," said Aristotle.

Even in religious emotion, excess is a mistake, and brooding tends to trouble. Frank McDowell put it into his head that he had committed the unpardonable sin.

The idea stayed, and by way of "expiation," he killed his two sisters, burning them as they lay asleep in their beds. That also preyed on his mind and added to his religious worries. So, by way of further "expiation," he shot his mother and father to death.

Such religious hallucinations were not unusual in the old days. They drove men and women into the desert where they lived in fifth and sixth centuries, imagining that such conduct pleased the Lord.

It didn't occur to them to ask why the Lord had provided a fertile earth and clean water if it pleased Him to see hermits die of hunger.

Many have seen the "holy man of Meuse," a deluded pagan, sitting on sharp spikes, and accepting little contributions, convinced that it pleased his particular God to see him sitting there.

The calming down of our religious emotions is a most important forward step in civilization. Men begin to realize that the mysterious power above gave us this beautiful planet, that we might take care of it like faithful gardeners and find happiness in the process, leaving the hereafter to a higher judgment.

Will the State of Florida accept or reject fifty million dollars worth of free advertising?

If Florida sends William Jennings Bryan to the National Democratic convention he will go at his own expense and Florida will get free of charge in all newspapers in the United States advertising as could not be bought for fifty or a hundred million dollars.

If Florida allows herself to be deceived by political gentlemen who belong to the East Coast Railway, which doesn't want Mr. Bryan to go to the convention, then Florida will lose very valuable advertising.

President Coolidge asks thirteen millions for the coast guard to deal with smugglers. The authorities intercept five per cent of the whiskey now. Spending ten millions more they might intercept seven per cent of it. They can't stop it. Smuggling cocaine and other drugs is a part of rum running.

The questions are, what is this Government going to do about it? Is it going to let the public be converted to let things drift?

In the dodgers advertising the play to be given by the Daughters of the Veterans entitled The Sewing Circle, it read music by the Girls Orchestra. This was a mistake for there will not be a girls orchestra although orchestra music will be furnished.

ONLY ONE CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR, TREASURER, CLERK, THREE FOR A SSESOR IN CITY RACE

When the last day for filing petitions for city officers arrived, (last night) City Clerk John R. Collins proceeded according to law to check up the lists of voters who had signed the various petitions, and was surprised to learn when this checking was done with a copy of the official poll tax list furnished by the county tax collector that two candidates for mayor and one for city treasurer had been disqualified.

There were three candidates for mayor—L. M. Parker for re-election; H. W. Chadwick and C. N. McMullen. The tax record showed that L. M. Parker had failed to pay his poll tax for the past year, thus being disqualified. In the case of C. N. McMullen two signatures of his petition had not paid their poll tax and were not therefore qualified to sign such petition and without these two names Mr. McMullen did not have a sufficient number on his petition to get on the ballot.

In the case of treasurer it was found that Ed. M. Albertson had not paid his poll tax, and thus he, too, was eliminated.

This would leave only one office contested for in the election to be held on March 25. J. L. Cummings, G. P. Arrowsmith and Wm. DeNoyer being all candidates for assessor and member of the city council.

H. W. Chadwick will become mayor without opposition, John R. Collins becomes city clerk without opposition and A. R. McGill becomes treasurer without opposition according to this situation.

But City Clerk Collins did not want to assume the responsibility of leaving off these names from the official ballot without authority, so he referred the matter to City Attorney Colin Parker, who ruled that the tax collector had closed the books for collection of poll taxes one week too soon.

This matter coming to the Tribune today we phoned Mr. Bundy to know by what authority he closed the tax books for collection of poll taxes on last Saturday and were quoted the following as the law, the same law that closed the poll tax books at Kissimmee last Saturday for their city election, where there is no contest.

The law quoted is as follows: "An act to amend Sec. 215 of the Revised General Statutes of Florida pertaining to the qualifications of electors."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: "Sec. 1. of Sec. 215 of the Revised General Statutes of Florida pertaining to the qualifications of electors be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 215.—Every person of the age of 21 years and upward that shall at the time of registration be a citizen of the U. S. and shall have resided and had his or her domicile habitation and place of permanent abode in Florida for one year and in the County for 6 months, shall if otherwise qualified according to law in such County be deemed a qualified elector at all elections under the Constitution. Naturalized citizens of the U. S. at time of and before registration shall produce to registration officers their certificates of naturalization or certified copies thereof and shall make oath that they are the identical person named in such certificate before they shall be allowed to register, provided that the following class of persons shall not be entitled to vote: "No person shall be permitted to vote at an election who shall have failed to pay at least on or before the fourth Saturday preceding the day of such election his or her poll tax, for the two years next preceding the year in which such election shall be held."

Desiring to further have proper advice on the pending question the Tribune wired the Attorney General this question, "If city election to be held on March 25, what is last date tax collector can accept poll taxes to qualify voters?"

To which we received the following reply from Hon. Rivers H. Buford, Attorney-General of Florida: Tallahassee, Fla.

12:07 P. M. March 6, St. Cloud Tribune.

State law requires poll tax to be paid on or before the fourth Saturday preceding day of such election (Chapter 8583 Acts 1921 fourth Saturday before March 25 was March 1st.

REPORT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN EXHIBIT HEARD CHAMBER COMMERCE WEDNESDAY

The regular weekly meeting of the St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce was held in the room of the organization on Tenth Street last Wednesday noon with a large attendance, and many matters of importance were discussed. The outstanding committee made reports on the Melbourne road, the membership drive, the Madison Square Garden exhibit, etc., and much interest was manifested in these matters.

The meeting was called to order by President L. M. Parker after the delicious luncheon had been served. The minutes of the last meeting were approved as read. There were no reports from the advertising committee and park committee.

The membership committee report was made by Rev. Wm. Landis who presented the names of J. O. Cowger, Leonard Peterson, C. C. Childers, Rev. A. W. Hall representing Tourist Club, Mr. E. M. Holden and Mrs. E. M. Holden, for membership in the organization and they were unanimously elected as members.

The report of the road committee was made by Mr. A. L. Barlow who stated that the committee together with a party of other St. Cloud citizens made the trip over the road to Melbourne on Monday and returned Tuesday. While there they attended the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce and talked with influential citizens of that district regarding the completion of the road and met with much favorable support. The Melbourne Chamber of Commerce is sending a special committee to the meeting of the State Road Department at Orlando on the 14th of March and see if some action cannot be taken to rush this work along.

Mr. Landis supplemented Mr. Barlow's report by stating that the committee had taken time on the trip over to investigate the work being done on the fill at the St. John's marsh and found that only about 600 feet of fill had been actually completed while some 400 feet had been partially completed since the beginning of the work several months ago, and that it was the opinion of the committee that the machinery was inadequate and unless steps taken to speed up the work it would be a long time before the fill was finished. He also brought out the point that when the rubber company agreed up the new territory and began hauling logs over the present "ferry" it was doubtful if the present schedule would be in effect as it would probably interfere with their work, and they would discontinue the service. If no delay is provided this would mean the closing of the road. Mr. Landis urged the sending of a committee to confer with the State Road Department at their meeting in Orlando and see what action could be taken to keep the road open. Upon motion it was decided that that road committee, consisting of Messrs. Sam. Brammar, Wm. Landis and A. L. Barlow, should attend the meeting in Orlando and present the matter to the road department, and as many members as possible are urged to accompany the committee as a delegation from this city.

County Agent June R. Gunn was a guest of the Chamber of Commerce and was called on for a report of the Madison Square Garden exhibit. Mr. Gunn responded in his usual easy manner stating that the exhibit was a success and all who saw it spoke highly of its use and benefit to the whole state. Regarding the Osceola County exhibit Mr. Gunn stated that it consisted of a miniature strawberry patch showing growing plants with berries, which created much favorable comment. The advertising literature distributed and information given will bring good results to Osceola County in the future, and Mr. Gunn cited instances where requests for information regarding the county had already been received. Mr. Gunn stated that one of the greatest events of the exhibit was the Florida products dinner at which only Florida products were served—everything even to the drinking water, being sent from Florida for this event. The guests were some 250 railroad men, steamship line men and city officials of New York City.

Mr. J. A. McCarthy made a motion that a vote of thanks be extended to the county commissioners for making the appropriation for the Madison Square Garden exhibit, and to Mr. J. R. Gunn, Mr. A. T. French and Mr. J. H. Lawlor for their valuable services. The motion was unanimous.

Dr. F. F. H. Pope brought to the attention of the members of the Chamber of Commerce the need of better railroad connections for St. Cloud. He cited several movements that had been undertaken in the past to induce railroad companies to get behind this movement as it would mean much toward the advancement of this section. Mr. Wm. Landis also spoke on this matter stating that plans were now under way for the building of a new road which could be brought through this section if the proper influence was brought to bear in the case. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter and see if this company can be induced to come through St. Cloud.

The current bills of the Chamber of Commerce were ordered paid. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

to blame but myself in the matter. I was as sure that I had my Poll Tax receipt for 1923 as I was sure I was living until the list of voters was submitted to City Clerk Collins from Tax Collector Bundy. Personally I have never been a candidate for the office and the only disappointment will be that of my good friends who have been responsible for my becoming Mayor and for my candidacy at this time.

I feel just as grateful to all my friends and have no disappointment or hesitancy in stepping down and out and I am willing to lend every effort and assistance to my successor and all interested in the upbuilding of St. Cloud and Community.

DONEGAN' LAWYERS TO SEEK REHEARING

(Tampa Tribune, March 1.)

Attorneys for Arthur E. Donegan, former state senator and ex-president of the First National Bank of St. Cloud, and of the Citizens Bank of Kissimmee, will apply for a rehearing of his appeal before the Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, U. S. District Attorney W. M. Gohier is informed. If the application is denied, they will ask the United States Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari.

This action will postpone for a few weeks the taking of Donegan to Atlanta to begin serving his three-year term for subordination and abstraction of $20,000.77 of the St. Cloud bank, but according to Attorney Gohier there is little likelihood that rehearing will be granted, and less chance that the Supreme Court will review the case.

The former bank president and senator, who is well known throughout Florida, was convicted in U. S. District court in Tampa in March last year. Appeal was taken and he was released under $5,000 supererendous bond.

The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals, sustaining the District Judge Walker, Judge Irwin and Judge Foster. Judge Nathan P. Bryson of the Circuit Court was dissatisfied from sitting on the case, being Donegan's brother-in-law. Notice of the decision was received this week by Attorney Gohier.

It may be two or three weeks before the motion for rehearing is heard by the Circuit Court. If the defense asks the Supreme Court for a writ of Certiorari, or order to the Circuit Court to send up the record of the case to the Supreme Court for review, further time will be consumed. If denied, the Circuit Court probably will within thirty days afterward send a mandate to the clerk of the District Court, the clerk will issue a final commitment to the U. S. marshal and the marshal will notify Donegan's bondsmen to deliver him into custody to be taken to the federal penitentiary. Thus it probably will be two months or more before the legal procedure is ended.

GOOD SERVICE OF JOHN COLLINS RECOGNIZED BY RE-ELECTION WITHOUT OPPOSITION

It is pleasing to note that when the last day for filing petitions to place names on the city ballot had ended yesterday, no one had been nominated to oppose John R. Collins as city clerk.

Mr. Collins has made such a satisfactory city official that it was predicted at the beginning of political talk this year that there would be no one to oppose him and this fact becoming true is a compliment to Mr. Collins and the city as well, for when a man will conduct the affairs of the city office in such a manner that complaints are so small that nobody wants to oppose his re-election, it is an indication that he is a most satisfactory public servant.

A grand surprise party was given on Mrs. W. B. Lively Saturday, March 1 on her birthday anniversary by the following ladies: Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Chas. Robinson, Mrs. McMullen, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. G. E. Robinson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Emer, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Raymond and her two daughters, Miss Mary and Ellen Lively. They presented by a big shower of beautiful cards, and delicious cakes and all joined in and had refreshments. She hereby wishes to thank them all.

MORE OF TENTH STREET SATURDAY LAST DAY TO BE WIDENED. LEGION BEAUTY CONTEST.

The Peoples Bank has informed the city council that they would give ten feet off their property at Tenth street and New York avenue and have bought the brick for the widening of that street for another half block. Efforts are being made to get the owners of the remaining half block from New York to Massachusetts to do the same thing, so that this street may be wide enough to take care of the increasing traffic.

Brick for paving of Massachusetts avenue from Tenth street to Twelfth street and down Twelfth east to New York avenue has been ordered, the Peoples Bank coming in for a half block of this paving also, but the petition for this work filed last week had more than enough names, and the clerk was instructed to order the brick at once, so that all this paving work can be done at one time.

There is some talk that property owners on Florida avenue between Eleventh street and Ninth street want brick paving, and a petition asking for this will probably be filed soon.

Under our charter property owners can get this public improvement on any street, or part of street by filing proper petition, the cost being assessed to abutting property and as long as a five year period under the charter being allowed to pay for such work. Under the new state road law, ten years can be given when bonds are issued for such work.

ST. CLOUD VISITORS ENJOY TRIP TO MIAMI

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cass, of Toledo, Ohio, Mr. Gartram from Urbana, Ind., Mrs. Sadie Siles of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Irene Cass, of St. Cloud, started on Tuesday February 18 for an automobile trip down the east coast to Miami, going by way of Orlando, Deland, Daytona, Cocoa, Melbourne, Palm Beach and Ft. Lauderdale.

There first stop was at what is known as the quackless duck farm where they spent a pleasant half hour and bought some eggs for setting. According to one of the party they got six white duck eggs and six black ones.

A little later they saw a sign along the road "fresh butter milk" and stopped to sample the lactical fluid, being surprised to note a sign "Toledo, Ohio" on the refreshment stand. That being the old home of some of the party they enjoyed the refreshments very much.

Then came a visit to a celery farm, the party agreeing that it smelled so good they could not resist stopping. There were 18 men in one field cutting and preparing for shipment this delicious vegetable for which the Sanford section is famous the world around.

At night the party stopped at Daytona, taking in the "inside fair", which they say was not near so good as the fair held in St. Cloud a few weeks ago. Dinner was had and a rest period was spent at New Smyrna next day, and the night was spent at Eau Gallie where the party was well pleased with the moderate rates of the hotels.

The drive along the river from Cocoa to Rockledge was declared most delightful, the next night being spent in West Palm Beach. A visit to Palm Beach was made, but space forbids a description of the fine homes viewed in this section.

Going on down to Miami, Sunday was spent in the Magic City. After attending the Rosworth Brothers meeting a trip was made across Biscayne Bay to Miami Beach, where seven persons were baptized in the ocean. The party saw the crowd on the beach and were much impressed by the work of a physical instructor

Monday night was spent at Lake Worth, and then a visit was made to spouting rocks, where they picked coconuts from the palm trees and spent the next night in Fort Pierce, party then came on up to Melbourne and returned home by the St. Cloud-Melbourne road, glad to be home again.

Coolidge's Manager

Wm. M. Butler of Massachusetts, member of the Republican National Committee and a Coolidge friend of many years, will manage the President's campaign for the 1924 nomination.

Every available seat was occupied at the post meeting last Thursday night. All wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of world war veterans had been extended a general invitation to be present and their response to the invitation was satisfactory to the post members as being evidence that the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 50 will continue to be an asset to the post.

The entertainment feature of the meeting was a debate between single and married men of the post upon the subject "Resolved, that it is better to be single than married." H. F. Zetrouer, spoke first in the affirmative and O. P. Hiburn led the married men. A. J. Gidger, Leslie Parker, W. E. Hettlinger, B. A. Crawford and J. O. Cowger spoke in favor of single life, and C. A. Wills, Lloyd Hettlinger, Harry Hildebrandt and O. R. Bloech defended married life. The judges, Dan Armstrong, Mrs. C. P. Parker, and Mrs. John Childers, decided in favor of married life.

Sandwiches and coffee were served following the debate. A. G. Demmon was the "lucky guy" to win the $7.00.

Geraldine Johnson, Martha Mowrey and Margaret Robinson are the three nominees in the beauty contest. Details are given in another column.

Howard Rowton, adjutant of the department of Florida, announces that as a result of the recent membership campaign, the paid-up membership in the state is over 5,000, which is more than the number of members in October, 1923.

The cup winners in the membership contest are Winter Garden, commander's cup; Wauchula, department cup; group 1: E. L. Pierce and Walter Haven tied for department cup; group 2: no both will be awarded a cup; Lakeland, group 3 and St. Petersburg, group 4.

A bulletin from state headquarters states that all post colors at the St. Petersburg convention March 27, 28 and 29 will be decorated with a silver band, and there is a prize offered for the post that has the most members that travel the most miles to get there. The first prize in the bathing beauty revue will be a loving cup and $25 in cash; second prize $50 in gold. On the athletic program there will be a first prize of $50 and second prize of $25 in each event of 50, 100 and 200 yard dash.

The housing committee of the legion convention requests the co-operation of all members as follows:

All reservations must be entered on a list by the post adjutant and the list sent to the chairman of the housing committee for reservations from each post.

Do not make any reservations with hotels direct, as everything has to go thru the housing committee.

Do not send names of parties who will be entertained by friends in St.

Petersburg, as all reservations held will have to be paid for. The charge will be $2.50 per person per day for rooms at all hotels.

TIME UP ON INCOME TAX RETURNS FOR 1923

Must Make Returns as Formerly and Must For Reduction Which is Likely to Come in Form of Unfilled Payment of a Later Installment. Taxpayers Delayed Making Returns in Hope of Reductions So Now Are in Wild Scramble to Get Under March 15 Wire.

Written for The Tribune. By ROBERT FULLER. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Another income tax return day is at hand. March 15th—a week from Saturday—is the day. Perhaps not since the income tax law became effective has there been as wide and general delay in making returns as this year.

The cause of this was, of course, the expectations of the taxpayers that Congress would have before this time passed a measure allowing a reduction on 1923 incomes. However, the fight in Congress in attempting to revise the Mellon's plan so gummied up the works that the situation is as yet unchanged—although it is generally accepted that a joint resolution covering a reduction of 1923 incomes will be passed before June 15. Legislation effecting 1924 incomes will likely be postponed until the fall session.

Pay in Installments
The layman is particularly interested in what he shall do now in regard to his 1923 income returns. Despite the wide circulation of recommendations covering this by the Internal Revenue Department, the fact remains that offices in every town and state are being besieged by a horde of taxpayers in a last mad rush and scramble to get first hand information and make returns.

Briefly, this is the situation. Reductions on 1923 incomes will be effective some time during the present year.

Taxpayers are being advised to make returns on 1923 income tax in quarterly installments—paying the first quarter when return is made—on or before March 15.

How Rebate May Come
Then, it is pointed out, when Congress does pass a joint resolution or amendment to the present revenue act (whether it is this spring or in the fall session) the taxpayer will be permitted to omit one of the quarterly installments—or the one-fourth reduction which has been promised and seems assured.

If the joint resolution is passed before June 15th, taxpayers may be permitted to omit payment on the second installment, though regulations will likely be attached so as not to affect the regular flow of funds to the Treasury Department.

It is possible, of course, that Congress during this session will yet snap into action and pass tax legislation covering both 1923 and 1924 incomes and which will be acceptable to both Republicans, Democrats, as well as the Administration.

Congress Knows Trough
However, indications are that the political maneuvering by both parties will result in a bill which will be stopped by the President's veto, and necessarily thrown back for compromise, revision, and passage at the Autumn session.

Congress knows full well that taxpayers will be in an ugly frame of mind at the fall election booths if they fail to get reduction on their 1923 incomes. Both parties have promised the reduction, so in making returns this month taxpayers can figure that they will get eventually one-fourth less than is shown on their returns.

Florida returns are to be made to D. T. Genow, Jacksonville.

WANTS TO GET BACK "HOME"
(Oswatimie, Kansas, Feb. 25, 1924.)

St. Cloud Tribune.
Dear Editor: I will write you a few lines for the paper as maybe you would like to get a letter from the north. Some call this "Sunny Kansas" but it seems to me like the North Pole as I have almost froze up here. I don't know whenever I have went through with such a winter. It has not been all sunshine and roses. How I do wish I was back in dear old Saint Cloud and could see the dear blues Saint Cloud.

My dear husband was in the hospital eleven weeks at Lawrence, Kansas. He has just got so he can walk good. I will sure be glad when we get back to our home and dear old Saint Cloud. Please put this in the paper.

Save Your Food With Ice

The best way to keep meat and other perishable food products is in a modern cold storage plant. The next best way is in a refrigerator properly cooled with ice. The average housewife can not afford a cold storage plant, but she can afford a good refrigerator or ice box, and a small piece of ice each day. The satisfaction you get out of a small piece of ice is well worth the few cents a day it will cost you.

COUNTING THE "CLEANINGS" IN A VACUUM CLEANER

COUNTY POLITICS SOON WILL BE TOPIC FOR VOTERS OF COUNTY.

By the time the tax books for the current year's (1923) taxes have been closed on April 1, there will be a full fledged list of candidates for all the various county offices that are to be filled at the general election to be held in November, those who are now "casting their hats in the ring" being the candidates who will go before the people of this county in the Democratic primary to be held in June.

So far as can be learned every office holder at present serving Osceola county will be a candidate for re-election, and several others who aspire to get an office have already been mentioned as candidates or possible candidates.

County Judge T. L. Comer says he will run for his office again, but he will be on the Republican ticket, as before.

Sheriff Farmer has already announced and has at least one opponent, and that from St. Cloud, J. M. Smith, present night marshal, while it is said another man will take the place if Catta gets to be governor, this other man has been considering making the race for sheriff.

For county Tax Collector so far there has been no announcement against Chas. L. Handy, who has served the county so well for the past twelve years, or rather will have served twelve years at the close of his present term.

John L. Overstreet was elected last time without opposition and present indications are that he will be unopposed again this year.

Several persons have been mentioned for tax assessor, but up to this time no announcements have been made except from W. J. Barber that he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

C. E. Towell will be a candidate to succeed himself as county superintendent of Public Instruction, and while several persons have been mentioned as possible candidates for this place, none have announced positively that they will make the contest with Mr. Towell.

E. L. D. Overstreet, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and member of the board from the Shingle Creek district will be in the race again this year, and up to this date no one has indicated they will oppose him this time. Mr. Overstreet has served the county for many years.

A. F. Bass has been urged to continue to represent the St. Cloud district again and has indicated that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Robert V. Phillips, of Kennansville district, has said he would be a candidate for another term because he wants to get a hard road from his section to join the Dixie Highway, and has been assured that the voters in his district want this job accomplished by him. Grading of the right-of-way for this road is now under way.

Henry Partin of the Partin settlement, has been urged to stay where he is on the county board, as his people and the county in general are satisfied with his work.

John M. Hansell, Kissimmee's representative on the County Board, has been absent from the last several meetings of the board, and it is understood that he is too busy away from home to want to be a candidate for his place on the board again, despite the fact that his work, when present, has been highly commendable.

For registration officer, there has been a number of people mentioned, and announcements from several are expected to be made in the next few days.

John S. Cadel and Milton Pridges, both well known attorneys of Kissimmee, will be in the primary for the nomination for county judge, while Pat Johnson will very likely not have any opposition for the office of prosecuting attorney.

Everything from Governor on down will be named this year, and politics will begin to hit soon.

In a letter written to T. P. Rockwell, formerly of Troy, Pa., from Dr. and Mrs. Boyer, who were here a few weeks, the editor of the Tribune was last week invited to take a sleigh ride when they reported the weather 18 to 20 degrees below zero. We had to decline the invitation with thanks, because we have been enjoying the winter-summer-time of St. Cloud so long that when it gets cold enough to frost down here we make a big back-log fire in our home fire-place and get weather reports from the frozen north by radio and feel thankful the Lord has let us get down here to live. We take our money that would be spent for coal and furs for clothing and home heating in winter and help to send the word to other unfortunate folks, what a paradise we have found. Come on down here and stay. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, of Troy, Pa., and all friends too. The Rockwells will tell you we know what we are talking about.

The meeting of the Tourist Association on Monday afternoon, was one of more than ordinary interest for several reasons. Dr. Hall presided in his usual felicitous manner, and the universal expression upon the faces of the audience, indicated the good feeling which prevailed. Nearly, or quite all the seats were occupied and 340, from 20 different States, responded to the rollcall of States.

The Treasurer's report showed all bills paid, including the price of the piano leaving about eight dollars on hand.

A motion to give a vote of thanks to Capt. Rice for his fine work performed for the Association, and that gratis, was heartily responded to. The executive board of the Association voted at a previous meeting to limit all programs to one hour.

The program was in charge of Mr. Goodman, representing the Minnesota and Wisconsin Association, was well arranged and also well rendered. It consisted of music, instrumental and vocal and several declamations by speakers, well known in St. Cloud who certainly not only did themselves credit, but captivated the audience. The next meeting of the Tourist Association will be on Monday, the 24th at 2:30 P. M.

"MUSTERED OUT."

Comrade Cummings sounded "Taps" over the remains of Comrade F. B. Wells, who died Friday last of pneumonia after three days' illness. The funeral was held at G. A. R. hall last Monday at 10 A. M. and very largely attended. Rev. Westover delivered the sermon and Mrs. Foster offered a most impressive prayer. A quartette composed of Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. J. K. Conn and Mesdames Drayton and Fowler rendered several popular hymns in a touching and effective manner. The services were ended by the G. A. R. Ritual.

The body was incased in a beautiful metal casket, on which laid the floral offerings and was taken back to the undertaking rooms to be taken later in the day to Kissimmee and there put on the midnight train for Phillipsburg, Canada, his summer home where he will lie beside the remains of his wife.

Comrade Wells enlisted from his native State, New Hampshire and served during the War. He has been a winter resident at the St. Cloud Hotel for the last nine years during which time his pleasing personality and affability won him a wide circle of friends by whom he will be greatly missed.

His acquaintance among the Bronze Button fraternity was somewhat limited for, besides being naturally of a quiet and retiring temperament, his activities of late years have been restricted by spells of rheumatism in his lower extremities; but those who did know him acknowledged him as being a man of sterling worth and valued his friendship. His chief diversions were to sit on the porch, or in the lobby and enjoy the social intercourse with his fellow guests, then a game of cards in the afternoon.

The day preceding his death was his 81st birthday and the guests of the hotel had some days before completed arrangements for making it a gala day and giving a party in honor of the occasion. When he was stricken and took to his bed, how little they thought the grim messenger was then hastening to deliver the fatal summons! His death was peaceful and he was conscious to the last and apparently resigned to enter upon that journey into the great unknown which we all must take.

The deceased left few surviving relatives: his only child, a son went over with the A. E. F. and died in hospital in Scotland in 1917, leaving a widow, Mrs. Blanche Wells and daughter, Dorothy, who have resided in St. Cloud for some years and are widely known and esteemed; an only brother, Eugene, with his wife, are passing their first winter in Florida, here in St. Cloud.

This fitting tribute is paid by one who passed many enjoyable hours in the society of him we lament.

Mr. Gunn stated that nothing less than $1000.00 would be sufficient to make even a small exhibit. Mr. Pledger suggested that the exhibit be small and attractive, that it might be possible to secure within $1000.00. He also stated that it would be good investment for the County. Mr. French suggested the exhibit be a display of strawberries and thought it could be put on for $1000.00. Mr. Pledger of St. Cloud, stated as it was a matter that interested the entire County the expense should be paid by the County. Mr. H. M. Katz stated the City Council might be willing to help, but it should be paid by the County as all tax payers in the County would be benefited.

FLORIDA GETTING INTO THE PROCESSION

By MOSES FOLSON

It is estimated that the total population of the world is about 18,000 millions of people. Of this mighty host a little more than 100 millions live in the United States, now the world's dominating country, with a national history of a century and a half, central in a continent known to white men for about four centuries. North and south of us are other countries or divisions containing a little over 40 millions of people, altogether giving the North American continent 150 million folks of the 1,800 million in the world.

It is assumed that the world's inhabitants look forward to a living standard now enjoyed by America, but to attain it means bringing into activity a picture beyond any so far taken upon the screen of human imagination. It is generally admitted that the English speaking American people is the best housed, best fed, best clothed and altogether the most comfortably equipped country in the world. It is the most mechanically ingenious country, having contributed more devices for human use than any other from the automobile and airplane down to the list to the improved either and to name the inventions would be to swell this sketch into a volume of many pages.

The United States is a centralized republic of 48 members, each working harmoniously for the common good of all, each speaking the same language and no restriction in trade or travel between the 48 minor republics. Bounded on the east and west by the earth's two greatest oceans, it contains more available land than any other equal area in the globe and very few of the metals and minerals and woods of use to man are lacking. Half of the fresh waters of the world is found within our borders.

It produces all of the staple food crops with a larger per capita consumption in variety for hungry people than in any other country. It has the largest deposits of petroleum and anthracite coal of all the continents and produces more cotton and corn than any other region of the world. According to the last Federal census it utilized the products of fields, forests and mines in 200,000 manufacturing establishments, with nine million employees who received 10½ billion dollars in wages to turn 27 billion dollars worth of raw materials into finished products worth 64 billion dollars. Not only has there been an increasing scale of production, distribution and consumption on which human opportunity and earnings rest, is seen not only in the growing national wealth but the increase during the last ten year census period, of savings accounts from six billion dollars to fourteen billion dollars and of national bank resources from six billion to seventeen billion dollars.

What a wonderful picture it is that America with five per cent of the world's population should show leadership in transforming the material resources of the world into a multitude of products for human service. Florida off at one corner of the republic, like a thumb on the human hand, but as useful in many respects, has long been viewed merely, as an agricultural state and therefore practically a new entry into the general manufacturing field. True it is that Florida has been in the lumber and naval stores business, and is still in it, "mining" so to speak natural assets, that is the trees are being cut, but no practical attempt is made to replace. cannot be put back but trees can be. At first glance it is difficult to comprehend the variety of uses to which wood is subjected. The chair you are seated in and the paper you are reading are made of the wood of trees. Experts of the Wisconsin agricultural college are finding live stock with chemically treated sawdust and from the same substance tar, oil, spirits and many other products are extracted. Wood fibre molded around wire is made into furniture and by other processes translated into silk for my lady's stockings, into rugs for the wooden floor, and for draperies around the halls. Florida has more varieties of trees than any other state, and in time to come, when necessity forces it, they will rank high in the list of cultivated crops. Florida has been the leading state in the production of turpentine and rosin in all years for which records are available since 1904. The relative importance of Florida as a lumber producing state has been increasing. In 1900 it ranked 17th among the states in the production of timber, in 1914 it was 14th and 10th in 1919. The value of work done in boat building increased from $1,705,519 in 1910 to $32,692,370 in 1919.

As indicated Florida is getting into the manufacturing game. The Federal census of 1909 showed the value of raw material used was $26,128,279 and this was given a value of $92,680,224 in a manufactured form. The figures ten years later showed the use of $72,880,659 worth of raw material and in a manufactured had a value of $213,925,511. The last federal census gave Florida a total of 2,582 manufacturing establishments, with 74,415 employees and climatic conditions allowing more days of comfortable employment than in any other state, existing. Florida has plenty of raw material in woods for multitudinous uses: of phosphates, having the largest deposits in the world for fertilizers; of fish, over 400 varieties, for many purposes; of sand for glass and other uses, of limestone and material for making concrete; besides products of the farms and garden for canning, for starch, for alcohol, (to take the place of gasoline when nature's supply runs out.)

One instance can be given to show what is going on. Orlando, usually considered mostly as a tourist city, recently gave an exhibition of articles made there and this is what the Sentinel in part said about it "The Made in Orlando" exhibit in the rooms of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce was a revelation and inspiration to everyone. It proved to be a great surprise to many who knew this city to find on display more than fifty different articles manufactured in the "The City Beautiful," ranging from fine clothes, jellys, strawberries, tomatoes and grapefruit up to dresses, suits, cigars, mirrors, mattresses, plants, cement roofing, gas, ice, mill work, vases, jardiniere, pottery, up to heavy machinery. No doubt to many the exhibition of manufactured products and articles was a revelation. It enabled them to learn something that they did not know previously that there is manufacturing in Florida.

The exhibition ought to have convinced them and likely did that they should be very much of Florida manufacturing. No argument is needed to prove that it pays to change raw material into forms for human use when the value is increased from 500 to 500 per cent. That the factories are coming to the cities and towns of Florida to utilize the raw material of the neighboring countryside is apparent.

The following gives the cities of the state each with 2,500 or more population and the rank of each: Apalachicola (28) 3,664; Arcadia (23) 3,470; Bartow (19) 4,293; Bradenton (26) 3,898; Daytona (16) 5,445; Deland (25) 4,324; Fernandina (15) 3,457; Ft. Myers (22) 3,678; Gainesville (11) 6,860; Jacksonville (7) 91,558; Key West (6) 17,740; Kissimmee (30) 2,722; Lake City (24) 3,341; Lakeland (10) 7,092; Live Oak (27) 3,163; Miami (4) 29,571; Ocala (20) 4,014; Orlando (7) 9,282; Palatka (18) 5,192; Pensacola (23) 31,035; Plant City (21) 3,729; Quincy (26) 3,118; Sanford (14) 5,588; St. Jacksonville (29) 2,773; St. Augustine (12) 6,192; St. Petersburg (6) 14,239; Tallahassee (12) 5,927; Tampa (2) 51,008; West Palm Beach (8) 8,450; West Tampa (9) 8,463.

The population is that of the Federal census of 1920, but each city has made notable increases since then by general growth and in some instances by taking out lying subdivisions into the cities proper. Florida has greater access to the world by water than any other state and the markets of the Union are available by swift moving trains. It is only a little more than a thousand miles from Florida to the center population in the Union. Accessibility to market is always a prime factor to be considered by manufacturers.

Florida furnishes four fifths of the fullers earth used in this country and is the largest producer of phosphates in the world. Phosphate is an essential element in the making of fertilizers, and thousands of tons are annually shipped across the ocean to enrich the worn soils of European countries. Kaolin, or ball clay, from which pottery is made, is found in many localities. Also limestone and extensive beds of peat and coal are found, composed of small shells and used for road making and building is one of the peculiar formations along the east coast. Coral keys or islands fringe the south end of the state, and coral rock is still being formed and accordingly ours is the only state being increased in land area by the addition of the new reefs and the enlargement of old ones.

Man has now dominance over the materials of the earth and a knowledge of the ways these materials have been laboriously handled from the beginning. Today, by magic we can convert them into possessions of undreamed service.

THE LAW OF GOD.

The pastor of the Baptist church of St. Cloud on last Thursday night and Sunday before taught that Christians were not under the law of God, the ten commandments as given upon Mount Sinai on tables of stone. The pastor affirmed that Christians were delivered from that law. To keep that law now was going back under Moses. The pastor has refused to publicly discuss the question with me. Therefore next Monday and Tuesday nights, March 10 and 11, I will review the pastor and show wherein he is mistaken. I shall treat the pastor kindly and in a Christian way. Do the people of St. Cloud desire to hear both sides of this great question? Come and let us reason together as friends. Meeting at the church one block west of G. A. R. hall and half block south.
